

Smart Kings Challenge

This year, challenge yourself to become a Smart King by using the following list as inspiration for giving back to your friends and community.

Invite your family and friends to do the same!

Make a neighbor a meal	Shovel someone's sidewalk or driveway*	Write a friend or coworker an encouraging letter	Clean snow off someone's car	Surprise the car behind you in the drive-thru by purchasing their order
Send a thank you to a teacher, pastor, mayor, bus driver	Make and send a senior citizen a Christmas card	Give a single parent a gift card	Donate toys your kids have outgrown to children in need*	Smile at a stranger and say hello
Share your Christmas cookies*	Leave a generous tip at a restaurant	◆ "WE LIKE BEING SMART KINGS AND BRINGING PRESENTS." ◆	Send a college student or military member a care package	Invite someone out for coffee
Go caroling at a nursing home	Offer to babysit for a friend	Call your mom, dad, or parental figure	Leave a snack for postal workers	Walk someone's dog*
Offer to do a chore for a sibling	Leave encouraging sticky notes around the house for your family to find	Create ornaments to hang on the Christmas tree*	Donate to or volunteer at a food pantry	Color a picture and send it to a faraway relative

Bonus: Gift a copy of The Wish Book Christmas to a friend or family member!

* An activity Harry and Bobby do in The Wish Book Christmas

The Smart Kings Challenge is inspired by The Wish Book Christmas, a Christmas story from bestselling author Lynn Austin. Learn more at tyndale.life/TheWishBookChristmas.

In The Wish Book Christmas, Harry and Bobby mistakenly call the Wise Men "smart kings."

Throughout the book, the two boys do kind things for their neighbors and friends to learn about the true meaning of Christmas and to emulate the Wise Men.
